

Adoption Support Group

If you are in the process of adopting or have adopted this is for you!

Adoption involves a significant commitment and investment that may cause stressors to all individuals involved. Adoption Support Groups lends support to family members as well as provide information.

Kids In Distress is offering two support groups for all who have either adopted a child or in the process of adopting. These groups provides information and lends support regarding child neglect/abuse factors, developmental issues, loss and abandonment, behavior and attachment issues.

You are not alone! Join us in working through the difficult times as well as celebrating the successes.
